Objectifs

Semesters 1 and 2 aim at giving students a thorough knowledge of the private and public aspects of international and European legal issues. The programme offers a comparative perspective, focuses on methodology with a view to providing the students with the tools needed to hold positions as lawyers in an international and European context. A study trip to Brussels is organised for students to discover the European Institutions.

Semesters 3 and 4 provide a research degree in Comparative and European Private International Law (CEPIL). The programme is entirely taught in English and was set up in 2011 by a cooperation agreement between Université Toulouse 1 Capitole and the University of Dundee in Scotland. This programme is a double degree giving students the chance to graduate both with a Master 2 and an LL.M (Latin Legum Magister). The French Master's is issued after spending the first semester at Université Toulouse 1 Capitole and the LL.M after the second semester at University of Dundee. The LL.M certificate is awarded during a graduation ceremony at the University of Dundee.

This type of programme remains rare in France and provides the cross competences, reflexes, methodology and knowledge that are necessary to the internationalisation and europeanisation of private law cases and regulations. The LL.M is a globally recognised degree, particularly in English-speaking countries. One of the requirements to graduate is a short thesis in English, according to the regulations of the University of Dundee.

A professional internship is still possible but optional.

Et après ?

Poursuites d'études SKILLS :

The teachings in the semesters pave the way to European and international careers, or employment requiring to manage different situations connected with international and European law. Students are encouraged to develop initiatives in order to bring out skills in organisation, communication and exchanges, which are essential for any legal practitioner who works in a team, with potential partners from all around the world, international organisations, firms or universities. The exchange during the second semester is a chance for developing the abilities of adaptation and communication in an international context.

Targeted occupations:

Professional opportunities are:

- Lawyer practise - National or international private litigation
- Legal departments in French or foreign private, public or public-private companies.
- Public service
- Governmental or non-governmental international organisations.
- Assistance and expert assessment for international institutions or national institutions
- Academic career in France or abroad.

More Details: You may read the OFIP's surveys about occupational integration of the graduate student.

The OFIP (Observatoire des Formations et de l'Insertion professionnelle) examines the academic and professional future of the alumni: continuation or resumption of studies, access to the labour market, after 30 months situation (work, studies, unemployment,...), occupation characteristics (sector, status, functions, professions, wages, geographical mobility,...).
